Dear Sir

In continuation to discussions between Mr. Shankar of HR Team, Zoho Corporation, and your placement team, this mail is to concrete the program.

Mr. Sridhar Vembu, the CEO of Zoho Corporation, has a long term vision on developing rural India and nurturing rural talent. While following the path of our beloved CEO, the visionary, a social entrepreneur and a forerunner, we intend to team up with like minded social observants in order to nurture and retain the rural talent in rural India.

Zoho Corporation is a product company and a pioneer in Saas vertical of software industry, in India. We recruit around 2000 employees a year. As a pledge of our intention we have established around 25 branches in rural and under developed districts in Tamilnadu.

Under "Rural Youth Empowerment Program", we would like to work with our partner colleges closely. As a mark of our interest, we would train one or two faculties from Ramco under the "Faculty Development Program", in order to understand the expectations of industry and to horn the skills on "Methodology of Industrial Training". Interested and successful partner faculties will be rewarded with a certificate marked "Zoho Certified Trainer", in the future. This program would enable your faculties to train students in such a way that they would be industry-ready by the time they complete their education. Successful students may get a placement at Zoho or Zoho's sister concerns or Zoho Partners or any IT company in the industry. Based on the cooperation and results we will work all the more closely with the partner colleges and help them with COE and technology partnering, in the future.

In order to discuss further and to understand your views, we would invite your good selves with your chosen faculties to our office at Tenkasi for a high-tea on Thursday, the 7th of October 2021 at 3.00 P.M.

Kindly acknowledge your interest.

Best Regards
Sohail
