Date and Time	27/2/2025 11.30 AM to 12.30PM
Meeting Platform	C2L04 & CAD Lab
Target Audience	I & II Years Mechanical Students
Nature of Interaction	Encouraged juniors to view the coaching and exams as valuable investments in their future.
Present Position	Mr. C. Krishna (2020-2024 Batch) GATE and PSU exam Aspirant (ACE Academy in Hyderabad)

Challenges & Motivation:

Krishna acknowledges initial difficulties due to a lack of strong engineering fundamentals but is committed to improving. He sees GATE preparation as an investment rather than an expense and is determined to maximize his potential through hard work.

Experience & Learning Opportunities:

Apart from exam preparation, Krishna values the interaction with IIT, NIT, and top government institute students, which helps him understand different approaches to learning. He is also exploring new languages and concepts, making this a valuable personal and academic journey.

Message to Juniors:

"Money doesn't matter; it's an investment in yourself. Success in GATE depends on your hard work. Utilize this opportunity and give your best. Wishing you all the very best for a bright future"

Feedback from Participants:

- Participants were inspired by Krishna's positive attitude towards overcoming challenges and his focus on hard work.
- His perspective on treating coaching as an investment, rather than an expense, resonated well.
- Many participants appreciated his advice on strengthening engineering fundamentals for GATE preparation.
- Krishna's interaction highlighted the importance of learning from top students at IITs, NITs, and government institutes, which participants found valuable.
- His honesty about the initial difficulties and the need for consistent effort was well-received.
